Obituary for Mrs. John Anderson

Mrs. John Anderson is reported quite sick of bronchial pneumonia.

Friends are quite glad to see Mr. D. M. Lackey out again after quite a sick spell.

The Card Club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Annie Hendon on Lexington street.

Notice To Teachers.

The January draft for the teachers has come and I am prepared to pay all who have filed their reports here.

Jenifer Higgins, Co. Supt.

Mrs. Marshal Eason, who has been ill for some time, is able to be up again. She is very thankful to her many friends for their kindness during her illness.

News comes that another little preacher has arrived at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Henry N. Faulconer in Philadelphia. May the little man grow up to be as popular as his esteemed father.

Mr. Matt Ellis who died recently at his home in New Castle was quite a popular drummer in this section. He has been coming to Lancaster for many years past and was well known to all of our druggists.

Accidently Shot.

A child of Mr. Hicks, the northern part of the county was accidentally shot through the body with a rifle by her young brother one day this week. We are unable to give particulars, but we hear she is getting along nicely now.

More Moving.

L. L. Walker and wife have taken rooms with Mrs. Geo. D. Robison; Raymond Hendon has moved to the country and Mr. Riddleberger, of Paint Lick moved to the property vacated by him.

Cord of Thanks.

To the kind neighbors and friends of the community, we offer our most sincere thanks for their kindness and help during the last sad hours of sickness and death of husband and father. May the rich blessings of God be returned to each one of them.

Mrs. Mary Dickerson and family.

Bargains in Land.

We have three small tracts of unimproved land for sale at a bargain. One tract of 21 acres, another of 18 acres, another of 13 acres. All well located, lies well, and good land. Can give possession at once. Will sell one tract or all. Terms to suit purchaser. Apply to Hughes & Swinebroad, Lancaster, Ky. 1-21-21.

Durno, the man who makes you laugh.

County Clerk Wm. Hamilton has been ill of an attack of grip.

J. E. Elmore has accepted a position in R. H. Batson's clothing store.

Mr. T. M. Cardwell, of Harrodsburg, is here representing the State Fire Marshal, and will investigate the burning of the Nuckles' tobacco barn.

Sale of Land.

Hughes & Swinebroad sold for Robert Burnside, 68 acres of land, on the Richmond pike, to R. E. Henry, at $90 per acre.

Prewitt.

Mr. Doc Prewitt, a reputable citizen, age 98 years, a member of the Baptist church, died at his son's on Broadwater Branch, last Thursday, and was buried in Lancaster cemetery on Friday.

Wear's Leases.

Attorney W. I. Williams, placed his index finger over the muzzle of an air gun that "wasn't loaded." The wound is not serious but the bandage is slightly inconvenient.

Lights On.

It was a most pleasing sight Monday night when our electric lights were turned on. We were in total darkness for about ten days and it was not unusual to see dozens of lanterns on the streets at one time. Here's hoping it will be a long time before we shall be compelled to resort to them again.

Kincaid.

On Thursday morning as we went to press, we heard the sad news of the death of Mrs. Patay Kincaid, that occurred Wednesday night at seven o'clock. The funeral services will be held at the residence, Friday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, conducted by Rev. G. C. Brown, assisted by Eld. F. M. Tindel.

Bowling Alley.

W. O. Dunlap returned from Cincinnati this week after buying two of the most up-to-date white maple bowling alleys he could find. They will be laid on cork so as to keep down the noise of the ordinary alley. The room recently purchased by J. I. Hamilton from W. T. West will be used for the alleys and work will begin at once to get it in condition.

Deeds and Mortgages.

To give our readers some idea of the volume of real estate transfers made in Garrard county in the last few weeks, we learned from County Clerk, J. W. Hamilton, that there had been 102 deeds and 24 mortgages recorded in his office since January 3rd, 1910. This shows how much in demand our farm land and city property are, and looks like there is plenty of money in circulation, with so few mortgages. Of course all mortgages are recorded, but there may be numbers of deeds that will not be recorded for some time.

County Supervisors.

We are unable to give a full account of the work of the board of supervisors this issue, as the recapitulation sheet is not yet made. We are able however to give the raise on the Bryantsville district, which is $42,000. Taking this rate over the county the increase will be considerable, and the total value of property will be in excess of any previous list. This should be expected, as we have about 150,000 acres of the most productive land under the sun, yet the vaults in our Court House, that hold the deeds to this valuable land are insecure and inconvenient. Let us have another vote on the bond issue to remodel our Court House.

Miller-Wilson.

The matrimonial bee that has been buzzing around the job department of the Record office lighted Wednesday on the foreman's head, Mr. Leonard N. Miller. Being overly anxious to allow this little insect to successfully do its mission on earth, he left Lancaster Wednesday morning to be guided by his winged companion, to Richmond, where the queen, Miss Fannie Thompson Wilson was in waiting. The happy couple left Richmond on the morning train and were married in Lexington at ten o'clock Wednesday morning. They were accompanied by the grooms sister, Miss Anna Miller and Mr. John Lynch, of Nicholasville.

The writer has had the pleasure of fourteen months business relation with Mr. Miller and each month impresses on us more forcibly his sterling character. Being faithful and conscientious in all his duties, we join the editor of the Climax in saying that "we know success will reward his faithfulness."

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. T. Wilson, of Richmond, and is a beautiful young lady beloved by all who know her. She will be remembered pleasantly here by all who have had the good fortune of hearing her sing at the various churches.

They will return to Lancaster the latter part of this week and live on Richmond street, where the groom has fitted a lovely home.

Here's hoping that "Happy" and his wife will be happy through life.

Monday is court day. DON'T FORGET TO PAY THAT YOU OWN THE RECORD.

Mrs. J. Roe Young is out again after several weeks illness.

Miss Sallie Tillett has been sick for some days past with muscular rheumatism.

S. D. Turner sold his stock of groceries on Campbell street to J. M. Turner and Harvey Lee, who will continue the business.

Alexander Walker purchased the lot of H. B. Northcott's on Stanford street for $1,750, upon which he will build an immense warehouse.

Sale of City Property.

J. I. Hamilton bought of W. T. West his store room on North side of Public Square, formerly occupied by Miles Miller & Ziegler, for $3,000.

Judge Homer W. Batson and Mrs. Batson, of Louisville, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a recent visitor in their home. It is hoped little Miss Batson will make a stay of indefinite length.

The number of wagon loads of tobacco that are coming in can scarcely be estimated. It truly looks like Garrison is coming to the front in handling this commodity. From this time on our battle cry will be "The Land of Now."

New Mill in Operation.

The new Garrard Milling Company has completed the work on the machinery and are now turning out three excellent brands of flour and meal. They have not stood back on expense but have put in the best and latest improved machinery and will have a stock of flour and meal ready for sale by the first of next week. They invite all to come and inspect their products.

Could be Improved.

If the report is true that the L. & N. rail-road is going to raise the track near the depot, would it not be a good opportunity for the chairman of City Development Committee to do some good work in trying to prevail on them to run the switch so it would not have to be crossed by passengers going to and from the coach? Try your hand Mr. Logan. Then—Mayor Logan, don't let your street committee forget the sidewalks to the depot. A bad impression is made on strangers entering our town from the station before they get to the Public Square.

Two Probable Residence Additions.

It is rumored that there is a strong probability of Lancaster having two new residence additions, one on Richmond street and the other on Stanford street. The one on Richmond street will extend South from the intersection of Richmond street and the L. & N. rail road, through the lands of Mrs. Dorcas Walker, deceased and will probably connect the Crab Orchard and Richmond pikes. If the plan materializes, this can be made one of Lancaster's best residence streets, since the lots will face East and West and will have a natural slope from the street back on either side.

The other addition is proposed by W. B. Burton, who contemplates putting down a side walk the entire length of his land on Stanford street, South of Mrs. Emma Higginbotham, and dividing the land into lots suitable for residences. This also will make many desirable lots, since the city has recently put electric lights this far out and water too will be accessible.

The question of buying suitable lots on which to build, has been a serious one in our town for several years, and now that our town is growing and the people over the state are learning of our superior school advantages, it behoves all men who have the city's welfare at heart to help push these proposed additions to a successful end.

We wish to suggest that if these two additions are successfully added that the owners of the land incorporate a clause in the sale of the lots making it compulsory for the purchaser to put up a residence to cost not less than $1,500.

RELIGIOUS.

The Presbyterian Mite Society met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mattie D. Deaneau.

The Union services were held at the Presbyterian church Rev. O. P. Bush preaching the sermon.

Rev. C. C. Brown preached a most excellent sermon Sunday morning on "Foreign Missions."

Brother Tindel's many friends will be glad to hear that he will be able to teach his class and preach Sunday morning, though he does not feel able to preach Sunday evening.

Five thousand laymen, representing practically all of the Protestant churches in New York, voted at a mass-meeting in the Hippodrome Sunday afternoon to increase foreign missionary offerings of Greater New York by $325,000 during the coming twelve months. The amount to be donated this year will approximate $725,000. The meeting was held under the auspices of the Laymen's Missionary Movement and marked the closing of the Greater New York convention. Nineteen cities, in which conventions have been held, have pledged an increase of $1,750,000. A series of meetings will begin this week in the large cities of the South.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

We are authorized to announce Hon. Harvey Holm a candidate to succeed himself in Congress, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

Warning For Legislators.

It is a dangerous thing to have power and authority, if not used in a manner consistent with the will of the people, who hold all power and only delegate it for a time, withdrawing it if not properly exercised. The Democrats easily hold the power in the Legislature, and if that body fails to do a few things that a majority of the people want done, the next Assembly, Governor and all will be republican. We had but few myself last session and the people held the republicans responsible for the defeat of the county unit bill, and they gave us a large majority, this time. Powder well before you turn it down, for they know that you can pass it and they are determined to have it.

There are many other things they want. The school system should be far removed from politics; women should be given the right of suffrage in educational matters and everything necessary should be done to bring about a system of education equal to that of other states. Our tax system has kept capital and many needed enterprises from our State, which has inexhaustible resources and limitless possibilities. The Tax Commission has submitted a report, showing clearly the disadvantages and burdens that our tax system inflict upon us, and recommends a constitutional amendment, to correct those evils, which should be submitted to the people. Our school laws, our tax laws, our prison conditions and many other things have fixed a stigma on our proud old Commonwealth, and the people are struggling to have it removed. If the Democrats go off on mouse-tracks and ignore these vital issues, they will be held responsible and never be called upon again to serve their country.

Desirable Legislation.

We heartily approve the three bills, produced by Senator Thomas, aiding toward much needed reformation.

One proposes to give the Judge discretion in fixing the penalty in felonies, leaving the jury to render a verdict of guilty or innocent. Another amends, sparing the condemned from younger condemned who are less hardened in crime and seems to amend the parole law so as to give the penitent felon an opportunity to start life anew, as a means for the practice of granting paroles for political purposes and on the favoritism.

The sanitary conditions of the prison are also to be improved and steps, consistent with safety and enlightenment, are to be taken in order to reclaim the felons, our States are doing. We should prove this course, for if every one were unevilled there are many who would have a direct and vital interest in the improvement of prison conditions. The growth and development of society demands a putting away of those old practices which are ignorance, malice and barbarous.

It has been reported that the trustees purchased by the trustees, with

Lewis Y. Leavell fund, will earn $100.00 for this year. If such is the case it seems to us that enough will be realized to assist very materially in paying the expenses of the Graded School. In addition to the earnings of the above fund, we understand the school will have its per capita of about $1.00 from the state, the revenue from taxation of 2¢ on the hundred dollars, and $1.00 paid by scholars living outside this district. Surely the school trustees can manage to have a surplus to pay for any added indebtedness, without a cent additional tax.

If the people will vote the taxes we urge the people to demand the answer to the question. We heartily desire to know if the community will enough take sufficient pride in want an up-to-date school and building. The people desire the health of the children

etc. Because our forefathers brought the three R's, (reading, writing and arithmetic) in big cabins

and taught, in uncomfortable quarters.

A Good Law.

Gov. Marshall, in commanding the present uniform accounting law of Indiana and its effectiveness, said:

"We will be able to show, before the law is in operation a year, that the law will save the State as much as $500,000 a year. When the public

Treasury is properly conceived it means lower taxes. When public accounting and book keeping are placed on an equal plane with the system in use in well-regulated private concerns it will mean that public office will attract a higher grade of men. It would also reduce the temptation to defraud. It is a business proposition that India and other States have neglected too long. It is another step and a long one toward the institution of actual business methods in public office, where there is need of the best business methods of business."

The following bill has been introduced in Congress and it will meet with the hearty approval of the newspaper fraternity, and all those who favor justice to everybody, as it seeks to keep the Government from competing with the printer, who is the only one with whom it offers competition. We took for a speedy passage of the bill.

"Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that from and after the approval of this Act it shall be unlawful for the Post-Office Department, or any officer, head of bureau, or chief of division thereof, to print or have printed, or sell or offer to sell any stamp envelopes bearing upon it a printed direction giving the name of any individual, firm, or company, or any number of any post-office box or drawer, or any street number or the name of any building to which it shall be returned if recalled for or undelivered; Provided, that this shall not apply to those envelopes printed with a return card left blank as to name, address, box, drawer, street number, or building, and which only give the name of the town or city, with the State, district or Territory."

Notwithstanding the poor appearance may have many hardships and troubles, yet they have many advantages over the rich. They are not annoyed by agents for silver and gold mining stocks, investment campaigns, standard literature &c. Their relatives are not anxious to see them die, as no estate will be left. They are not annoyed by a host of so-called friends, who profess their admiration purely for the purpose of being benefited in some way. The chief advantage lies in the fact that they can sleep at night—not being in doubt as to whether their dealings have oppressed any one; nor are they bound to worry over their stocks, bonds and securities. Take it, all in all, there is but little difference, as to advantages, if we live as we should.

Following an informal discussion of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, Representative Hammond, of Minnesota, has framed a bill to allow national banks to loan not to exceed 50 per cent of their savings deposits on improved farm lands, under regulations to be prescribed by the Controller of the currency. We fail to see why this privilege should not be given. It is the best character of security and the banks are at expense, and as there is much responsibility, in holding such funds, it follows that some compensation should be allowed.

Move to The Farm.

Too many are leaving the country and going to the cities, where they fail to produce the necessities of life. There are more consumers than producers, and hence farm products are in demand, the supply not being equal to the natural increase in population and the increase brought about by open immigration. The farmer is at the bat and we are glad of it, for he is the bone and sinew of our wealth, and he lives the only happy and independent life.

A leading politician gathered his followers in one section of the county court house to hear one of the campaign orators, telling them that when he stamped them must applaud loudly to show their strength. While the orator was talking on a dryly logical point the leader knocked his pipe on a seat to remove the ashes and his benighted roared like so many lions and thundered against the floor like battering-ram. This incident shows the necessity of intellectual qualification for suffrage.

Our habits and our control over them determine our future, for happiness or misery, in life and eternity. When deprived of objects of lust and unholy pleasure, as we must be we will miserable or in hell. If we cultivate the good we will be happy, or in heaven.

Mr. Sam Moberly who has been a resident of our burg for three years has gone to Benton to reside.

Miss Blanche Stotts was visiting friends and relatives in Madison last week.

Wm. West P.M.

Remember Durro will be at the Court house on next Wednesday Jan. 26. Seats now on sale at McRoberts drug store.

Concerning Our School.

Some time in the early 80's probably in 1883, Mr. Peeples, pastor of the Methodist church, suggested that the old Dunlap residence be bought and converted into a Female College. The suggestion was acted upon after a discussion of the matter in the local newspaper. A public meeting was called when a few public spirited citizens subscribed a fund to organize the Garrard Female College and in that of his brother-in-law, W. C. Rudd, died in Cleveland, O., Saturday night. He was 100 years old.

Miss Eleonor Williams, once nurse in the home of John D. Rockefeller and in that of his brother-in-law, W. C. Rudd, died in Cleveland, O., Saturday night.

To handle out offices entailing salaries aggregating $20,000 a year Myra Gaylor, of New York, has appointed only one Tammany man, Murphy has paid the Mayor many visits, but they have brought forth no patronage results.

The first convention for the study of the hookworm will be held in Atlanta this week and will be attended by over 200 physicians, three representatives of the Rockefeller million-dollar fund and the many other prominent men of science.

Suit was filed in the United States Circuit Court in Chicago, charging that the Federal corporation tax law recently passed by Congress is unconstitutional and seeking an injunction to restrain the directors of the Northern Trust Company of Chicago from paying the tax.

The mantle of M. D. Hughes has fallen upon his son Saulley, worthy successor to a model editor, and we predict for him a bright future. Already he has shown enterprise and grit. In the upbuilding and uplifting of his native town and county he has displayed unusual wisdom and is as versatile and resourceful as his brother Robert, who started in with the Recon office many years ago.

The present editor of the Recon can accomplish a great deal for our city if he can succeed in proving beyond a reasonable doubt that we absolutely need a new school building.

The Secretary of the Board of Trustees, in response to many inquiries, submits the following extract from the will of the late Lewis Y. Leavell, who so generously remembered our community.

"I will bequeath the remainder of my estate in trust for the benefit of the Lancaster Graded Common School, (white) and direct that the Garrard County Court shall appoint three men as trustees to invest and manage his $15,000. Said men must be of high moral character and good financial ability and give bond for performance of their duty and may be paid a reasonable sum for their services, if they so desire." THE EARNINGS OF THIS FUND SHALL ONLY BE USED FOR EACH YEAR'S EXPENSES OF SAID SCHOOL PROVIDED ANY BONDED INDEBTEDNESS NOW EXISTING MAY BE PAID OUT OF IT. Reports of trustees every two years shall be made to said court and recorded. The court shall appoint and fill any vacancy that may occur in said board."

J. B. K.

Durro is acknowledged to be the best man on American platform so selected.

we must face the relentless, certain day when we shall not produce food said President William C. Brown, of Imp Albert, one of America's greatest stallions, is dead at the age of 28 years. When 13 years old he was purchased for the Adelbert Stud, in the out-skirts of Hopkinsville by its owners, Dr. M. W. Williams and Maj. Cyrus

S. Radford, Assistant Quartermaster of the United States Marines.
He distinguished himself as a sire in an incredibly short time after being brought here, and in 1900 Williams & Radford refused an offer of $30,000 for him. Their judgment was well vindicated by the next crop of yearlings, which brought $32,000, one of the number selling for $7,700. Purchased in the fall of 1896, his first crop, nine or ten year-olds, placed him a premier stallion in 1899, with nearly $100,000 to his credit. Of this crop came Mesmerist, the champion two-year-old of his time, who won $50,000 in stakes. Then followed Herbert, winner of $15,000.

NOTES FROM MEADOWBROOK FARM

By William Pitt

A clean horse is soonest curried.

Better a poor horse than a poor ass.

Chickens kept confined should be fed a noon meal.

Cheep harness often proves an expensive investment.

A little axle grease applied where it belongs saves horses.

Lots of people have automobile aspirations and no team efficiency.

Good ventilation is one of the first essentials to good health of dairy and milk.

Good management is the only thing which will make hens pay a profit every month.

A cold roast for dinner and a hot roast between meals turns the mills of the divorce courts.

It should not be one great breed of horses against another so much as the well bred against the scrub.

Whenever a large limb is sawed from the tree, the wound should at once be covered with wax or thick paint.

Fall plowing that is well done cuts
the labor of preparing the seed bed next spring—cuts it squarely in two in my opinion.

Diversified intensive farming is the only kind that will pay the money which buys autos and other conveniences for the farmer.

A few hours' work with a steady team and a road scraper will save dollars' worth of manure and leave the barnyard in dandy shape for the winter's chores.

When the consumer can rest assured that his milk won't have dirt and filth settled in the bottom of the glass from which he drinks, he will pay high for his milk.

Pictures of Presidents.

In every department, and in fact responsible bureau, are to be found the pictures of the former heads of those departments or bureaus. Pictures of all of the presidents are not in the White House, but many are to be found there.

Neither are the pictures of the wives of all the presidents, those who occupied the position of "first lady of the land," to be found in the White House, though a goodly number have been preserved. It is rather a notable fact that the pictures of nearly all the women who have graced the position of mistress of the White House are placed in the lower rooms and corridors. This region might be termed the basement, though it scarcely merits that position in architecture.

All of these corridors are used at the big functions at the White House, and no doubt more people see the pictures of the women than would be the case if they were hung in the upper rooms.

Illustrous Descent.

It is a desirable thing to be well descended, but the glory belongs to our ancestors.—Plutarch.

Women.

One woman can meet another woman for two minutes, and describe what she had on for two hours.—New York Times.

ABOUT HYOME!

A Bottle Costs Only 50 Cents—

A Complete Outfit Including

Inhaler $1.00.

It is not necessary to inoculate the soil for cowpeas, but it is necessary to inoculate the soil for soy beans because of the clover, but it is just as necessary inoculating once in sufficient; it may be done by putting a pint of the soil containing the bacterium in the drill box and letting it sift out with the seed.

The majority of soils it is safe to spread manure in the fall, either for fall or spring plowing. If manure has been accumulating around the barn yard or in the manure shed
it is a good time now to draw it out and spread it upon the land. In no way does manure give as large returns as when spread on grass land,
and there is no better time than fall.
The fall rains and winter snows will soak it well into the soil where it will be available for the grass roots
when they start in the spring.

Comparisons Are Dangerous.

"A chap told me this morning, that I looked the image of you." "Where is the idiot? I'll pound the life out of him." "Too late. I killed him."

Interesting Question.

"Why it is," says the Philosopher of Folly, "that you never meet a brilliant man or a clever woman without having to stop and wonder why he or she happened to marry the dense one he or she did."

BUCKEYE.

Miss Emma Simpson, who has been in Colorado for Tuberculosis, has returned home.

Mr. John Higgin was up from Frankfort last week to see home folks.

Mr. Alex Miles will start to Texas,
soon, for his health.

It was learned Wednesday that Mr.
John Dickerson who had been in poor health a good many years and an invalid
several months had grown suddenly worse.

Wednesday night neighbors and friends came to see if there was any little service to do. One glance was evidence (to express in words he loved) that he would soon be gathered at the River.

At 5:30 the last was breathed so gently, yes just as his many friends had treated him in his years of declining health.

Mr. Dickerson was married 22 years ago to Miss Mary Ray, daughter of Dr. Wm.
Ray, deceased. To this union were born 6 children 5 whom are living, Edward, Katie, Mamie, Jeannie and Mrs.
Geo. Ray. The wife and daughters admirably to his comforts with tireless energy. While doing to some extent on little Edward the only son, he was not much less fond of the daughters. One of his chiefest pleasures being in having his two youngest daughters, Mamie and Katie, sing his favorite church songs. In healthier days joining in himself as he pleased a fine tenor voice. Mr. Dickerson was a church-going man, of the Baptist faith, and as a devoted church member,
"He was a man that attended to his own affairs."

His business was that of a drummer and after his declining health prevented traveling he was still urged by firms to resume his work for he was zealous in business.
